

Hello, we are Heather and Ian Johnson, proprietors of Ceilidh, a small family run bed & breakfast. Should you have any access requirements we are happy to be flexible and make whatever adjustments we can to ensure your stay with us a pleasant experience.

Equipment : available on request.

- Bed Lever
- Vibrating Alarm clock or , flashing alarm clock
- Flashing door bell (used for Health & Safety also for your privacy when housekeeping)
- Temporary support frame for toilet
- Temporary hand grips (suction to assist entry/exit to shower in Double)
- Two way Radio so you can stay in contact with your companions
- Additional lighting
- Catering for Special Dietary needs (please inform us as early as possible so we can source suitable ingredients for your breakfast)
- Room guide on coloured background + large print.
- British Sign Language Interpreter (when not out at work)

General facilities:

- Room guide in 14pt
- Mini fridges (for your medication etc)
- Hospitality tray with cordless kettles
- TV/DVD players with Text & remote control
- Contrasting tableware
- Ramp access to property
- 4 steps with Handrail to front door
- Ground floor accommodation

Notification of your requirements at the time of booking will help us to put them in place ready for your arrival. However, if you are unable to book in advance we will do our utmost to make you as comfortable as possible.

The ground floor consists of a fully accessible Single en-suite, Double en-suite and the Breakfast room.

The Single has direct access from our small private car park and is fitted with easy reach light switches and clothes storage at a low level. The en-suite wet room is fitted with a raised toilet, a level-entry shower, grab rails in shower and beside toilet and a removable shower seat.

The Double room can accommodate a wheelchair however some mobility is required to make use of the en-suite. Access to this room is via the front door (4 steps with hand rails) or via the ramped access in the dining room.

Access to the breakfast room is via the hallway which will accommodate walkers or wheelchairs. The dining room has four tables for two people and these can be arranged to suit. The china contrasts well with the tables and extra lighting is available. The buffet server is a suitable height for access but Ian will be happy to assist if you have difficulty.

The first floor has a Twin en-suite and another Single en-suite room, ideal for your travelling companions.

We are aware that you may wish to communicate with other members of your party so a hand held intercom is available on request enabling you to keep in touch with each other. If required, suction handles to steady you on entry/exit to the shower are available.

For your comfort, all four bedrooms have a TV with text capability, blackout blinds, hospitality trays with cordless kettles , mini fridges and welcome packs in 14pt font, however information in large print (up to 20pt),flashing doorbell and vibrating alarm clock can be made available if required.

We are happy to accommodate registered assistance dogs in our ground floor rooms; however dogs are not allowed in the upstairs rooms to ensure they remain hair free for guests with allergies.

Bookings may be made via telephone, fax, e-mail, Type-talk and our landline can accept BT Text calls (SMS to computerised voice). Heather is a Scottish registered British Sign Language interpreter and holds a Deafblind communication certificate. When work commitments allow, she will be at home and happy to help.

Breakfasts are cooked to order and requests for special dietary needs can be accommodated, if specified when booking, or subject to availability.

Access to the local area is reasonable with unrestricted on-street parking to the front of the house as well as our small private car park along with bus stops very close-by.

Kneeling buses run past Ceilidh every 20 mins during the day and some are wheelchair accessible visit www.stagecoachbus.com for further details. Local taxi firms have accessible vehicles on request. Local restaurants are flexible and access friendly.

There are many interesting places to visit in Moray, a selection of local restaurants, bars, churches, visitor attractions and the swimming pools have provided disabled access.

The local GP surgery is less than a mile away and the nearest hospital is Dr Grays, Elgin around 6 miles away.

Please view the room photos on our webpage or call and enquire as to the suitability of our premises for your stay. We look forward to welcoming you.