

DIRECTIONS BY ROAD

From the north:

- 1) You need to get to the A55 outer ring road which runs around Chester, taking either:
 - M53 (south) from Liverpool (toll tunnels), or:
 - M6 to J20, followed by the M56 (westbound) then the M53 following signs for Chester & North Wales.
- 2) Follow signs for M53 / A55 Chester and North Wales (the M53 turns into the A55 west of Chester)
- 3) Leave the A55 at the junction with the A51, taking the 3rd exit at the roundabout above the motorway, and following signs for Chester and the A41 (Whitchurch). Make sure you stay in the left lane as you leave the roundabout.
- 4) There is a set of traffic lights very shortly after leaving the roundabout from the A55 - turn left at these (there is a filter lane), following signs for A41 (Whitchurch).
- 5) Carry on along the dual carriageway for about 1/2 mile. Stay in the left hand lane until you come to a large roundabout just after a pedestrian crossing. Take the 1st exit and turn left at the roundabout, following signs for A41 (Whitchurch).
- 6) Now follow directions below for ' From Chester via the A41'

From Wales:

- 1) Take the A55 North Wales Expressway to Chester. Follow ring road around Chester, and take the sliproad for the A41 (south), following signs for A41 (Whitchurch).
- 2) The sliproad is quite long, and eventually comes to a large roundabout. Turn right at the roundabout, taking the 4th exit and following signs for A41 (Whitchurch).
- 3) Now follow directions below for ' From Chester via the A41'

From Chester via the A41

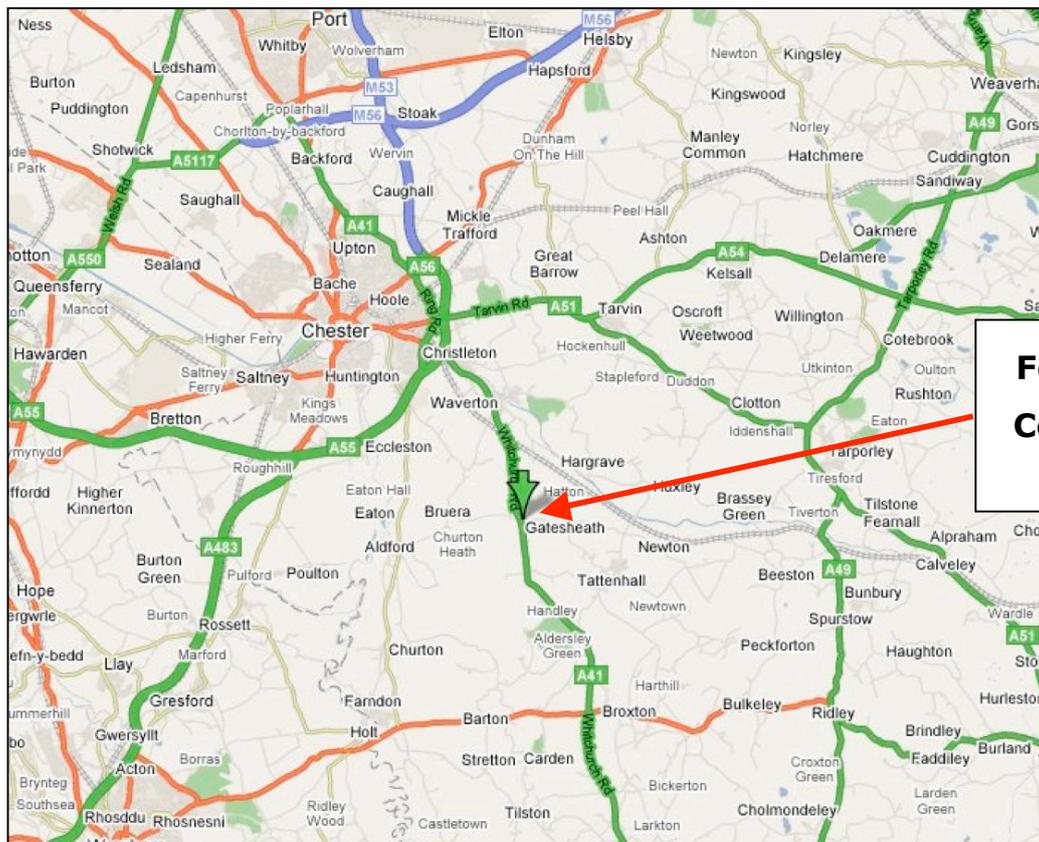

- 1) Stay on the A41 through the villages of Rowton and Waverton, following signs for Whitchurch.
- 2) The road eventually straightens out and you leave the houses behind. You'll pass the Black Dog Pub on your right - about 2 miles after the pub, turn left onto Chester Road, following signs for Gatesheath and Tattenhall. (There is a turn to the right for Bruera just before you turn left, so that you know when to look out for your turning.)
- 3) Fernlea Cottage is the first house on the right-hand side. The entrance to the drive is closest to the main road - there's a sign at the entrance.
- 4) There is a security light if you arrive after dark, and the door is at the front of the cottage in the middle.

From the south via A41

- 1) Take the M6 north from Birmingham, leaving at J10a for the M54 and following signs for Telford and Mid-Wales.
- 2) Stay on the M54 for about 11 miles, leaving at J3. Take the 3rd exit at the overhead roundabout, taking the A41 (North) and following signs for Newport and Whitchurch.
- 3) Stay on the A41 for just over 40 miles - it'll take about an hour. You'll bypass Newport and Whitchurch. After Whitchurch, follow signs for Chester.
- 4) You'll cross the A534 at a roundabout with a garage on the left hand side. About 4 miles after this is the village of Milton Green, with a car dealer on the left hand side.
- 5) After Milton Green there is straight stretch of road, and you enter a 50 mph limit at the end of this stretch. Take the right hand turn onto Chester Road immediately after the speed limit signs.
- 6) Fernlea Cottage is the first house on the right-hand side. The entrance to the drive is closest to the main road - there's a sign at the entrance.
- 7) There is a security light if you arrive after dark, and the door is at the front of the cottage in the middle.

Places to eat

There is a wide choice of eateries around Fernlea Cottage, covering many cuisines. Carriages Restaurant is about 10 minutes' walk down the road from Fernlea Cottage, while the villages of Tattenhall, Aldersey Green, Waverton and Christleton provide a wide choice of places to eat.

Here are a few suggestions:

- Carriages Restaurant - an excellent selection of steaks, fish dishes and English recipes in a lovely old converted cheese parlour. Just down the road from Fernlea Cottage.
- Mitchells Brasserie - a family-run wine bar and restaurant offering International cuisine, with a big emphasis on local produce. A la carte menu light lunches and open sandwiches Tuesday to Friday, plus a traditional Sunday menu. Great selection of wines, plus local cask ales from the Weetwood Brewery. (Tattenhall)
- Try Thai At The Bear - authentic Thai cuisine in a traditional English pub setting. Try these Thai dishes - duck spring rolls, honey spare ribs, spicy king prawn soup duck with sweet and sour chilli and roasted duck red curry. (Tattenhall)
- Village Indian - very friendly restaurant with excellent food. (Tattenhall)
- Calveley Arms - lovely old gastropub, in a quiet village bypassed by the A41. (Handley)

Alternatively, Chester city centre, with its complete range of restaurants, is only a few miles away. We are more than happy to help you choose somewhere and make a booking on your behalf.

Buses

Bus service 41/41A runs from the city centre and passes Fernlea Cottage. Ask the driver to tell you when you are leaving the A41 to turn to Tattenhall.
