

A Warm Welcome to Oxford

The River Hotel is an independently owned, pleasant twenty bedroom 2 star Metro Hotel very close to Oxford city centre, with a garden leading down to the banks of the River Thames and lovely river views from the restaurant. We take pride in our personal service and friendly staff.

We are conveniently located close to the centre of Oxford, making it a short walk to tourist, business and travel needs.

Facilities

Individually decorated bedrooms with personal touches throughout.

Knowledgeable and local staff, with a happy smile and personal service.

Free car parking for residents. You are welcome to leave your car longer on the day of check-out.

The River Restaurant is overlooking The Thames and your start of the day with our great breakfasts. Cooked English breakfast as well as an extensive buffet selection for all appetites.

Relax in our homely residents' bar and or during the summer on the large lawn leading down to the River.

Location

Ideal for business and tourist travellers, we are one of the nearest hotels to the Saïd Business School and King's Conference Centre

At the start (or end) of one part of the 'Thames Walk', the hotel lies on the banks of the River Thames, looking onto Osney Island Conservation area.

Directions

The hotel is in easy walking distance to the city, colleges, entertainment venues, bus station and a few minutes walk from Oxford rail station and of course on the River Thames. We are a short drive to the surrounding countryside and beyond via the A34 ring road.

Driving

The River Hotel is just one mile from the A34 ring road west exit, enter OX20AJ in your GPS. Avoid the centre of Oxford (closed to general traffic from 07:00 until 18:30 daily) and follow signs for Rail Station. The car-park is directly behind the hotel approached from Mill Street.

On Foot

The River Hotel is a 10 minute walk directly west from the centre of Oxford and just 200 metres from Oxford Rail Station.

Airports

Oxford is situated just 1 hr north of London Heathrow Airport (LHR) and 1 hr south of Birmingham International Airport (BHX)

History

The hotel is of historical importance and was originally built by Thomas Kingerlee as his private home in the 1870's. Thomas Kingerlee was a master builder in Oxford and built many of the imposing buildings in the area - he was also Oxford Mayor in the early 1900's.

The property is owned by Christ Church College, a part of Oxford University and a landowner in West Oxford. They have long term plans to redevelop the area.

Special Needs

Smoking is not permitted anywhere in the hotel - it's the law.

Pet animals as a rule are not allowed in hotel rooms. Guide dogs only to suitable rooms.

There are steps and stairs into both buildings; with no lift, this may not suit those with special needs.

Room Reservations

For advance reservations, we request a confirmation with deposit of £20 per room as a guarantee.

Credit Card Security

We accept credit payment. However for security we do not accept credit card details by phone without cardholders written authorisation.

Cancellation Policy

If a room is cancelled after 4p.m. and not relet any prepaid deposit is forfeited. Note, bookings must be cancelled before 4p.m. by Thursday for weekend bookings commencing on Friday or Saturday.
