Are you a passionate caterer who thinks you have a talent and wants to assist in the running of a Gastro Pub whilst looking to further push your career on as part of an excellent team?

The pub has recently been refurbished externally in the prosperous village of Barton on the busy main road from Cambridge to Bedford in a prominent position which is easily visible from the road. I am now taking the pub's offering to the next level and investing into the front of the house team aiming to improve the standards of service and customer care to ensure we sit head and shoulders on par with the local best.

This is a flexi full time position and ideal candidate will have at least three years' experience and be from an a restaurant/bar back ground.
